

Teen Summer Reading Programs 2016

Carver School Road Branch
703-2910

Ongoing Programs

Mondays @ 10:00-12:00 noon—Teen Tech Workshop Series

Sign-up to participate in our summer teen technology workshop series. Microsoft Basics, Data Visualization, Social Media, and more. If you missed them in class or need a refresher, register by email at mayhance@forsyth.cc. Space is limited.

Special Programs

Monday, June 20 @ 2:00 pm—Monkey Hooper (Participation waiver required)

Hooping is one of the best exercises around, and it's a lot of fun, too. Join Monica Casey for an upbeat program to learn hula hoop skills and tricks with her special handmade hoops. For grades 6 - 12. Registration required. Call to register.

Wednesday, June 22 @ 3:00 pm—Metal Stamped Jewelry

It's time to pound out your frustrations--and make something beautiful out of it! Come make a permanent mark with us. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Registration suggested. Space is limited. Also at Rural Hall.

Wednesday, July 27 @ 3:00 pm—Steampunk Mini Hats

Mini hats + Steampunk = plenty of fun! Join us to make tiny hats similar to the Mad Hatter's maddest creations. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Also at Southside.

Saturday, July 23 @ 5:30-7:30 pm—Teen Lock-In (Participation waiver required)

Come to the end-of-summer-reading Teen Lock-In! There will be a costume contest, food, games, and much more. Call 336-703-2910 between July 1 and July 21 to register. Parent permission required. Space limited!

Clemmons Branch 703-2920

Tuesday, June 7 @ 4:00 pm—Polymer Clay Charms

We're keeping it small. Join us to make small charms out of polymer clay, and learn why small is sometimes best. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Also at Rural Hall.

Clemmons Branch (continued) 703-2920

Monday June 27 @ 2:00 pm—WFU Museum of Anthropology presents “Symbols of Strength”

Using cloth and other objects from MOA’s collections, teens will get to look at and study West African Adinkra Symbols, which are used for strength, protection, and well being. Teens will then create and decorate tiles using Adinkra symbols. For rising 6th-12th graders. Registration is required, as space is limited; Call to register.

Also at Kernersville, Reynolda, South Side, and Walkertown.

Tuesday, July 5 @ 3:00 pm—Clay Impressions

Learn about air-dry clay, and design a decorative bowl of your own. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Attendance is limited--registration is suggested.

Also at Walkertown.

Kernersville Branch 703-2930

Tuesday, June 14 @ 4:30pm in Room 7—WFU Museum of Anthropology presents “Symbols of Strength “

Using cloth and other objects from MOA’s collections, teens will get to look at and study West African Adinkra Symbols, which are used for strength, protection, and well being. Teens will then create and decorate tiles using Adinkra symbols. For rising 6th-12th graders. Call to register. Also at Clemmons, Reynolda, South Side, and Walkertown.

Tuesday, June 28 @ 2:00 pm—Interactive Movie: Harry Potter & the Sorcerer’s Stone (Rated PG)

We’re not just sitting around watching a movie! There will be plenty of activities throughout, so keep your eye on the screen! Our movie will be about a boy wizard. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Registration is recommended for the full interactive experience, although all teens are welcome.

Tuesday, July 26 @ 4:00 pm in Room 4—Minute-to-Win-It Teen Olympic Finale

How much can you do in a minute? You’d be surprised! Compete in easy and fast-paced minute-long competitions. Every time you win, you’ll get a medal and a prize! For ages 12 to 18.

Lewisville Branch 703-2940

Tuesday, June 14 @ 3:00 pm—Edible Bird Nests
Mmm...we love to eat! Learn how to craft a bird's nest with us—then eat your creations! For grades 6-12. Also at Reynolda.

Thursday, June 23 @ 4:30 pm—Teen Anime Club
Join us as we watch anime, discuss our favorites, enjoy snacks, and practice our manga art skills. For grades 6-12.

Thursday, July 7 @ 3:30 pm—Big Bang Boom: Songwriting

for Teens

Get great songwriting help from one of the area's hardest working bands. For grades 6-12. Also at Walkertown.

Tuesday, July 12 @ 3:00 pm—Light Up the Night Paper Lanterns

There's nothing like a light in the dark. We're decorating paper lanterns with a summer twist! For grades 6-12. Attendance is limited—registration is suggested. Also at Malloy/Jordan and Walkertown.

Friday July 29 @ 5:30 pm-8:30 pm—Teen Anime Lock-in

Stay in the library after hours to watch anime, play games, eat snacks, and have fun! For grades 6-12. Also at Malloy/Jordan and Walkertown.

Malloy/Jordan East Winston Heritage Center 703-2950

Friday, June 17 @ 2:30 pm—Interactive Movie: Guardians of the Galaxy (PG-13)

We're not just sitting around watching a movie! There will be plenty of activities throughout, so keep your eye on the screen! Our movie will be about a ragtag bunch of space aliens turned superheroes. Program for youth in grades 6-12.

Registration is suggested for the full interactive experience, all teens are welcome.

Wednesday, June 29 & July 27 @ 4:00 pm—Teen Movie Evenings

Malloy Jordan East Winston will be hosting two free movie evening matinees this summer. Join us for fantastic films!

Friday, July 15 @ 3:00 pm—Light Up the Night Paper Lanterns

There's nothing like a light in the dark. We're decorating paper lanterns with a summer twist! Program for youth grades 6-12. Attendance is limited. Registration is suggested. Also at Lewisville and Walkertown.

Reynolda Manor Branch 703-2960

Special Programs

Thursday, June 2 @ 4:30 pm—Edible Bird Nests

Mmm...we love to eat! Learn how to craft a bird's nest with us—then eat your creations! Program for grades 6-12.

Also at Lewisville.

Thursday, June 30 @ 4:00 pm in the auditorium—Make Your Own Hula Hoop with Monkey Hooper

Design and make your own hula hoop. For rising 6th-12th graders. Registration required by Thursday, June 23. Email provera@forsyth.cc or call 336-703-2960.

Thursday, July 7 @ 4:00 pm in the auditorium—WFU Museum of Anthropology presents "Symbols of Strength"

Using cloth and other objects from MOA's collections, teens will get to look at and study West African Adinkra Symbols, which are used for strength, protection, and well being. Teens will then create and decorate tiles using Adinkra symbols. For rising 6th-12th graders. Also at Clemmons, Kernersville, South Side, and Walkertown.

Friday, July 22 @ 3:00 pm—Interactive Movie: Labyrinth (Rated PG)

We're not just sitting around watching a movie! There will be plenty of activities throughout, so keep your eye on the screen! Come see rocker David Bowie in a movie about a crazy maze. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Registration is recommended for the full interactive experience, although all teens are welcome.

Rural Hall 703-2970

Ongoing Program

Second Fridays of the Month -June 10 and July 8 @ 4:30 pm—Anime Club

Monthly program for anime enthusiasts featuring videos, gaming, and food. Ages 12-17 welcome.

Rural Hall (continued) 703-2970

Special Programs

Thursday, June 23 @ 3:00 pm—Polymer Clay Charms

We're keeping it small. Join us to make small charms out of polymer clay, and learn why small is sometimes best. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Also at Clemmons.

Thursday, July 28 @ 3:00 pm—Metal Stamped Jewelry

It's time to pound out your frustrations--and make something beautiful out of it! Come make a permanent mark with us. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Registration suggested: space is limited. Also at Carver.

Friday, July 15 @ 4:00 pm—Anime Club Cosplay Contest!

We are proud to bring back our Anime Club Cosplay Contest, a craftsmanship award show with a catwalk display, prizes, and other fun events! And if you don't want to compete, (but still want to be seen) come by pre-judging and let us know. Call 336-703-2977 or Email chestet2@forsyth.cc for more information.

Southside Branch 703-2980

Thursday, June 9 @ 3:30 pm—Steampunk Mini Hats

Mini hats + Steampunk = plenty of fun! Join us to make tiny hats similar to the Mad Hatter's maddest creations. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Also at Carver.

Wednesday, June 22 @ 3:00 pm—Teen Gaming Cafe

Come have some video gaming fun and snacks with other teens.

Wednesday, July 13 @ 3:00 pm in the auditorium—WFU Museum of Anthropology presents "Symbols of Strength"

Using cloth and other objects from MOA's collections, teens will get to look at and study West African Adinkra Symbols, which are used for strength, protection, and well being. Teens will then create and decorate tiles using Adinkra symbols. For rising 6th-12th graders.

Also at Clemmons, Kernersville, Reynolda, and Walkertown.

Thursday, July 14 @ 3:00 pm—Interactive Movie: The Goonies (Rated PG)

We're not just sitting around watching a movie! There will be plenty of activities throughout, so keep your eye on the screen! We're watching a movie about teens seeking a pirate's treasure in order to save their homes. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Registration is recommended for the full interactive experience, although all teens are welcome.

Walkertown Branch 703-2990

Wednesday, June 8 @ 3:30 pm—Light Up the Night Paper Lanterns

There's nothing like a light in the dark. We're decorating paper lanterns with a summer twist! Program for youth in grades 6-12. Attendance is limited--registration is suggested. Also at Lewisville and Malloy/Jordan.

Saturday, June 18 @ 2:00 pm—Sharpie Mug Gift Making

Decorate a white mug with permanent black markers for a special someone on a special day. Call to register.

Wednesday, June 22 @ 6:00 pm—Family Movie Night: Hunger Games-Mockingjay Part 2 (PG-13)

Join us for the final thrilling film in the Hunger Games series. Starring Jennifer Lawrence and Josh Hutcherson.

Wednesday, June 29 @ 2:00 pm—WFU Museum of Anthropology presents "Symbols of Strength"

Using cloth and other objects from MOA's collections, teens will get to look at and study West African Adinkra Symbols, which are used for strength, protection, and well being. Teens will then create and decorate tiles using Adinkra symbols. For rising 6th-12th graders. Also at Clemmons, Kernersville, Reynolda, and South Side.

Wednesday, July 6 @ 2:00 pm—Songwriting Workshop with Big Bang Boom

Get great songwriting help from one of the area's hardest working bands. Call to register. Also at Lewisville.

Wednesday, July 13 @ 3:00 pm—Clay Impressions

Learn about air-dry clay, and design a decorative bowl of your own. Program for youth in grades 6-12. Attendance is limited--registration is suggested. Also at Clemmons.

Monday, July 18 @ 2:00 pm—Yoga for Teens (Participation waiver required)

Stretch and deeply relax your mind and body. Bring a mat, towel, or blanket. Dress in comfortable movable clothes. Registration suggested, required for groups.

Wednesday, July 20 @ 2:00 pm—Hands-On Drumming with Hashim Selah

Explore hand drumming with a master of the craft. Free and open to teens.

Registration required.

