

Branch-to-Branch Community Poem 2020

The world needs poetry right now and we'd love to have your voice added to our community poem.

It's easy to participate. Take a look at what's been written so far and add two lines of your own to the general theme, "What Community Means."

All of our voices will add up to one beautiful poem.

Here are the Guidelines:

1. All customers and staff of the Forsyth County Public Library are encouraged to participate in the community poem.
2. All entries should be family-friendly in content
3. The library system reserves the right to edit or exclude entries that are offensive
4. All entries submitted will be subject to fair use.
5. All entries must be submitted between Monday, April 6 and Thursday, April 30 at 9 p.m.
6. One entry per person, only please.
7. Online Daily Posts: The central theme/question will be posted daily each morning for ongoing participation by the community.

The content is going to be posted on the Forsyth County Public Library's Facebook Page:
